Happy Spring!

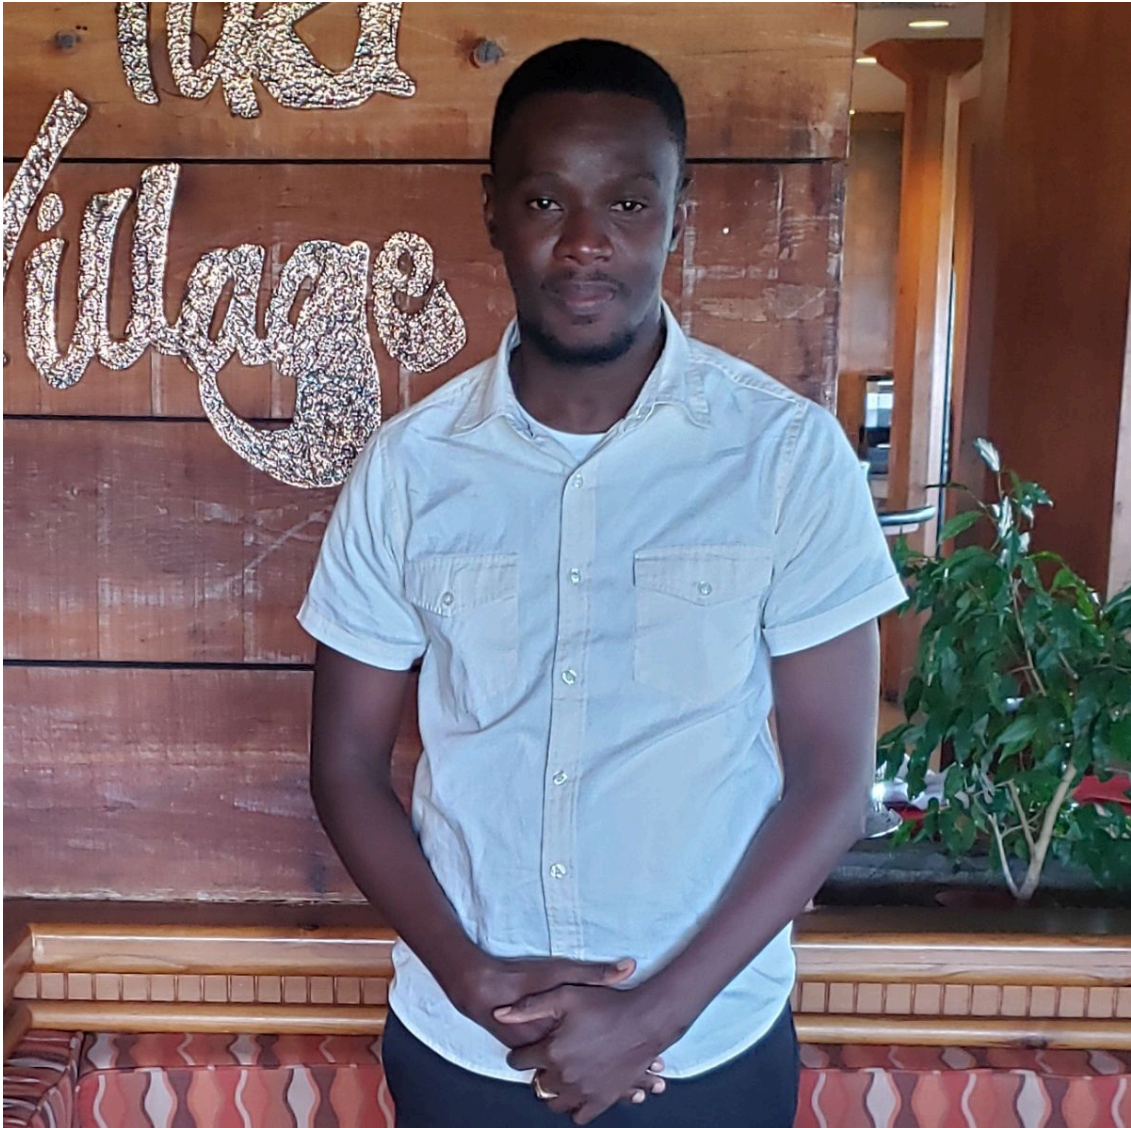

In this edition, we share photos from board member Jason Scott's February visit to Guyana. Jason was able to meet up with a number of current SAGE Scholars to chat about their experiences and answer their questions.

In addition, we catch up with SAGE graduate Kevin Morgan. Through his career and volunteerism, Kevin exemplifies SAGE's core values.

Board Member-Scholar Meetup

On a recent trip to Guyana, SAGE board member Jason Scott had the opportunity to meet up with several of our Scholars: Sheldon, Dolly, Mohendra, and Cassie. Jason enjoyed hearing about the scholars' diverse experiences and compelling stories. Check out some pictures from the meetup below!

Kevin Morgan, SAGE Graduate

Catching Up with Kevin Morgan

A 2014 graduate of the University of Guyana, former SAGE Scholar Kevin Morgan is employed by the Petroleum Division of the Government of Guyana. Kevin works with a group of petroleum engineers to help regulate the oil and gas industry at a technical level. As a lawyer who completed his law degree at the Hugh Wooding Law School in Trinidad and Tobago, Kevin also serves as a law teacher at President's College.

He spends his free time volunteering with young people involved in the Golden Grove Dynamic Football Club, reigning champions of the East Demerara Football Association. According to Kevin, "We are using the sport as a means to get youths off the streets, and to otherwise direct their energies positively on the playfield."

Kevin embodies many of SAGE's core values as a professional and active community member. We are honored to have been a part of his journey and look forward to hearing about his future accomplishments.
